

DEI in the Community

A list of resources and events happening in Milwaukee and the surrounding community

Compiled by the WSM DEI Committee: March 2023

Television, Films and Stories:

The 1619 Project airing on Hulu now. A six-part docuseries adapted from The New York Times original essays “The 1619 Project: A New Origin Story” by journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones. It examines how the legacy of slavery shapes different aspects of contemporary American Life.

Fight the Power: How Hip Hop Changed the World on PBS now. There’s a lot more streaming on PBS this month. Details here:

https://www.pbs.org/articles/what-to-watch-black-history-month/?utm_source=bestofpbsnewsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_term=mainpromo1&utm_content=20230201&utm_campaign=blackhistorymonth_2023

Milwaukee Film is celebrating Black History Month 2023 with a long list of viewings. For the full descriptions check here:

https://mkefilm.org/black-history-month-2022-milwaukee-film-\(1\)?utm_source=MadMimi&utm_medium=email&utm_content=Black+History+Month+Week+One%3A+FREE+Events%2C+Great+Screenings&utm_campaign=20230201_m171616421_BHM23+Week+One&utm_term=MF+Newsletter+Headers+Special+Announcement+png_3F1579646735?utm_source=MadMimi&utm_medium=email&utm_content=Black+History+Month+Week+One%3A+FREE+Events%2C+Great+Screenings&utm_campaign=20230201_m171616421_BHM23+Week+One&utm_term=MF+Newsletter+Headers+Special+Announcement+png_3F1579646735)

Community Programs & Openings:

America’s Black Holocaust Museum is free of charge on February 25th 10am – 5pm and 26th. 12 to 5pm.

Sarah Ball Allis Art Museum, 1801 N. Prospect Avenue. “A celebration of artmaking and feminism”. January 26 – June 11, 2023. Celebrating Sarah Ball Allis and highlighting work by feeme, women and nonbinary artists. More here: <https://www.charlesallis.org/exhibitions/current/>

Wendy Red Star’s “Apsalooke: Children of the Large-Beaked Bird” November 12 – February 26th at the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art. “Wendy Red Star’s work offers accounts of American History that rectify the frequently flawed narratives about Native people. An avid researcher Red Star re-examines artifacts and primary source historic imagery and uses them as the foundation for her beautifully annotated photographs and installations.” More information can be found here:

<https://www.mmoca.org/events/wendy-red-star-apsalooke-children-of-the-large-beaked-bird/>

You may have seen Michelle Obama on CNN recently promoting the Girls Opportunity Alliance and the importance of educating girls around the world. Learn more about the Girls Opportunity Alliance here:

https://www.obama.org/girlsopportunityalliance/?utm_source=crm&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=Tiffany_CNN%20Tune%20In_112022&sfmc_s=0033600001qtHvAAAU

Books

Looking for a reading challenge? Books are Magic is offering a Black Authors reading challenge for the entire year. If you complete the challenge, you get a prize! Sounds like fun. Check it out here: <https://booksaremagic.net/i-read-black-authors-challenge>

Join the virtual book discussion of James Cameron's book *A Time of Terror: A Survivor's Story. February 23rd, 6:00pm. Registration is required – here: <https://www.abhmuseum.org/events/abhm-book-club-a-time-of-terror/>
